NCPDP Non-Disclosure Agreement for Exam Candidates

Please familiarize yourself with the following Non-Disclosure Agreement. Before the start of the exam session, exam candidates will be asked to accept this Agreement, thereby making a commitment to behave ethically before, during and after the exam. Failure to accept this agreement will disqualify the candidate from taking the exam, and the exam fee will be forfeited.

By acknowledging that you have read this agreement, you are indicating that you agree to the terms and conditions set forth below:

- I understand that the contents of this exam are the property of the National Council for Prescription Drug Programs, Inc. (NCPDP) and are copyrighted under the laws of the United States.
- I understand that I am expressly prohibited from disclosing, publishing, reproducing, or transmitting this exam, in whole or in part, in any form or by any means, oral or written, electronic or mechanical, for any purpose.
- I understand that using any prohibited aids in connection with the exam, attempting to give or receive assistance, or otherwise communicate in any form about or during the exam is strictly prohibited.
- I have read, understand, and agree that my exam may not be scored, the exam fee may be forfeited, and I may be barred from taking any NCPDP Certification Examination for three years from the date of the incident if NCPDP or Kryterion has reason to believe that I am involved in exam misconduct or any other testing irregularity that could compromise the integrity of the exam.

Failure to abide by these terms and conditions can and will result in the cancellation of your exam score and/or pursuit of any other legal remedies available to NCPDP.

By checking this box, I acknowledge that I have read this form carefully and understand the provisions of this Non-Disclosure Agreement and I agree to follow the provisions as stated.
