Agenda

Don't Miss the Opening ONC Keynote: The Role of Health IT in Quality Health Care

Dr. B. Vindell Washington, MHCM, FACEP, National Coordinator, Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC) will present The Role of Health IT in Quality Health Care. He will discuss his background in health IT and the role of health IT in key nationwide initiatives. The keynote will emphasize ONC's policy and technical work supporting the healthcare ecosystem. Don't miss this opportunity to understand the current status of health IT in the U.S. and gain awareness of policy work at the federal level to promote interoperability and payment for quality vs. quantity.

Pharmacists and pharmacy technicians can earn up to 6.5 Continuing Pharmacy Education (CPE) hours from the ACPE through the Institute of Wellness and Education. CPE credits are provided thanks to a sponsorship from CoverMyMeds.

Speakers

ONC Keynoter

B. Vindell Washington, M.D., MHCM, FACEP

National Coordinator, Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC)
The Role of Health IT in Quality Health Care

Dr. Vindell Washington provides high-level executive direction and leadership for ONC programs, operations, and policies and advances key Administration initiatives, such as delivery system reform, the Precision Medicine Initiative, and implementation of the Interoperability Roadmap. Prior to joining ONC, Washington served as the President of the Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady Health System (FMOLHS) Medical Group and as the health system's Chief Medical Information Officer. During his tenure, the health system has been an early adopter of technology and FMOLHS has been recognized as an Information Week Top 500 Company. The institution's help desk has won the Help Desk Institute best in class award.

Luncheon Keynoter

Susan Winckler, R.Ph, Esq.

Chief Risk Management Officer, Leavitt Partners

The Role of Pharmacy in Accountable Care: A Critical Puzzle Piece

Ms. Winckler advises corporate executives on policy and business matters, such as Medicare/Medicaid, FDA practices and alternative payment models. As CEO of the Food & Drug Law Institute from 2009-2014, she provided attorneys, regulators, industry leaders and consumers with journals, meetings and a neutral forum for addressing domestic and global issues. As FDA Chief of Staff from 2007-2009, Winckler managed the Commissioner's office; served as his/her senior staff adviser; analyzed policies; and represented FDA before myriad government and external stakeholders. She simultaneously led FDA's Offices of Legislation, External Relations, Public Affairs and Executive Secretariat. As APhA Vice President Policy/Communications and Staff Counsel, she served as the senior liaison to Congress, the executive branch, state associations and allied groups.

Sessions

Don't miss this chance to learn more about cutting-edge solutions to critical industry challenges and how to increase interoperability and improve patient care!

Integrating REMS into the Healthcare System through Structured Product Labeling

Adam Kroetsch, MSPPM

Policy and Informatics Advisor, Office of Strategic Programs, U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

FDA's Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategies (REMS) are programs designed to ensure that certain drugs with serious risks are used safely. REMS information will soon be available in Structured Product Labeling (SPL) format, making it easier to access systematic, standardized information about REMS programs that can be incorporated into existing practices and workflows. This session will introduce participants to REMS SPL, how it works, what information it provides, and how it can interact with NCPDP standards to help automate and standardize REMS workflows.

Role of NCPDP Standards in Health Information Exchanges (HIEs)

Rear Admiral (RADM) Pamela Schweitzer, Pharm.D., BCACP

Assistant Surgeon General, Chief Professional Officer (CPO), Pharmacy, U.S. Public Health Service

Shelly Spiro, R.Ph., FASCP

Executive Director, Pharmacy HIT Collaborative

As the pharmacy services evolve to electronically document patient care, it is essential to develop standards for pharmacies to receive clinical information and share pharmacist-provided patient care data with other members of the healthcare team. This session will discuss the NCPDP standards developed to exchange health information and government programs designed to assist connecting pharmacies to Health Information Exchange (HIE) organizations responsible for data exchange management.

TeleHealth

Emily Alexander

Former CEO, Envision Telepharmacy

Kevin Boesen, Pharm.D.

CEO, SinfoniaRx

James B. Peake, M.D., LTG, U.S. Army (Retired)

President, American Telemedicine Association (ATA); Senior Vice President, CGI Federal

Lisa Robin, MLA

Chief Advocacy Officer, Federation of State Medical Boards

Phil Wickizer

Assistant General Counsel, DaVita

TeleHealth is a healthcare buzzword and is everywhere you turn. Technology is clearly changing the way healthcare is delivered today. Come hear a panel of experts in TeleHealth and telepharmacy discuss the current and future care delivery models, legal considerations and regulatory trends. Learn about TeleHealth trends and how they affect medical and pharmacy practice. The evolution of TeleHealth is becoming a critical factor as we seek ways standards can provide solutions for effective interoperability and Health Information Exchange (HIE).

Stay and Collaborate!

Stay after the Summit and join NCPDP members and other industry stakeholders working together to create solutions for healthcare. NCPDP's quarterly work group meetings directly follow the Educational Summit from November 2 - 4, 2016. Members attend work groups for free and non-members pay a registration fee of $450.

The Role of Pharmacy in Accountable Care: A Critical Puzzle Piece

Susan Winckler, R.Ph, Esq.

Chief Risk Management Officer, Leavitt Partners

As the transition away from fee-for-service payment continues, medication use – and pharmacy practice – are becoming increasingly important parts of value-based payment (VBP) structures, including Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs). This presentation will provide an overview of the transition to VBP (with an emphasis on ACOs) and discussion of how medication use – and manufacturer, payer and provider approaches to medication use – may change in that transition.

Overview of Work Group Key Initiatives

Michele Vilaret Davidson, R.Ph.

Manager of Pharmacy Technical Standards, Development and Policy, Walgreen Co.

This session will provide a brief overview of key NCPDP initiatives not previously covered in earlier presentations. The overview will focus on initiatives in WG1 and WG11 to include highlights of the next Telecommunication Standard, SCRIPT Standard and benefits coordination, as well as information on attachments and copy assistance. It will also review initiatives that promote improving patient care from other work groups as applicable.
